RITES HELD FOR RETIRED MINSTER BUSINESS MAN

John Berning Succumbs At His Home Friday After Extended Illness

Funeral services were conducted in St. Augustine's church Tuesday morning for John Berning, aged 87 years and 7 months, retired Minster business man who died at 11 a.m. at his residence. The Rev. Edward Moorman offered requiem high mass and burial was made in the church cemetery.

Mr. Berning had been in ill health for 18 months. His death was contributed to complications.

A lifelong community resident, he was born a farm east of Minster December 5, 1858, a son of Henry and Gertrude Dornecht Berning. He married Mary Schmiesing May 24, 1882. For 30 years after their marriage, the couple lived on a farm east of St. Patricks.

In 1912, Mr. and Mrs. Berning left the farm and came to Minster. Mr. Berning was an employee of B. Sherman who conducted an implement business, until 1915 in which year he entered in partnership with Joseph Busse in the business now operated as Busse and Berning.

Mr. and Mrs. Berning celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in 1932 and the following year he retired from active association in business. On April 15, 1942, their union was broken by the death of Mrs. Berning.

Surviving are three children, Mrs. Anna Plas of St. Patricks, Clem Berning of Minster, and Mrs. Bernadine Plas of St. Patricks. There are six grandchildren and nine great grandchildren. Theodore Berning of McCartyville is a brother.

Mr. Berning was a lifelong and faithful member of the Catholic church. He was a member of the St. Augustine and Holy Name societies of the church here. Fraternally he was a member of the Knights of Columbus.

Pallbearers at the funeral Tuesday were Ray Westerheide, Frank Kitzmiller, William Kitzmiller, Camillus Droesch, Bernard Farno and Richard
