Bernard Bernhold

Funeral services were conducted in St. Augustine's church here Thursday morning for Bernard Bernhold, aged 79 years and eight months, one of the community's oldest residents, who died in his residence, 124 North Lincoln street, shortly before 10 p.m. Monday. Rev. Fr. Otto Mueller, pastor, officiated high mass. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Mr. Bernhold, who spent his life in this community, suffered a paralytic stroke on Sept. 2, and was isolated from that time until his death. Prior to suffering the stroke, he had been in comparatively good health for his advanced age. He worked regularly up to the age of 70, and had lived retired since that time.

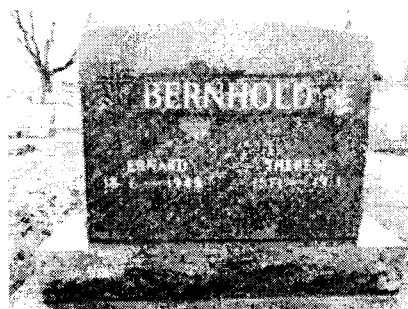

Born Jan. 6, 1866 on the farm northeast of town, now owned by Joseph Sturze, where the Charles Nagel family resides, on Amsterdam road, he was married to Theresa Seger in 1897. After their marriage the couple settled on the farm east of town, now owned by Bernard Prenger. Fourteen years later they moved from the farm to their present residence where they have lived 33 years.

In his younger days, after leaving school work, Mr. Bernhold worked at various tasks in this community, and for 16 years was caretaker of the Precious Blood convent here. Upon his retirement, he continued his activities to caring for his garden and the family premises.

Surviving the aged man are his widow, and two sons, August and Henry, both of whom have lived at home with the parents. He was the last of a family of 12 children.
