

Mrs. Schroeder Dies In Dayton

Relatives in New Bremen received word of the death of Mrs. Bertha Schroeder, 76, of 1833 Speice Avenue, Dayton, native and former resident of New Bremen. She died last week Tuesday evening in St. Elizabeth Hospital, Dayton, following an illness of four weeks.

Mrs. Schroeder was a daughter of the late William and Wilhelmina Polsdofer Landwehr. She was the widow of William Schroeder who died several years ago. Prior to her marriage she was employed at the Hotel Hollingsworth.

She is survived by two sons, Harold and Eddie Schroeder of Dayton; two daughters, Mrs. Robert (Rose Marie) Garwick of Dayton and Mrs. Hubert (Dorothy) Todd of Fairborn; ten grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Roy (Wilhelmina) Froike of New Bremen and Mrs. Arthur (Lula) Wilson of Dayton; and two brothers, Elton Landwehr of Cincinnati and Roy Landwehr of Dayton.

Funeral services were held at 10:00 a.m. Friday in the Tobias Funeral Home, Water-vleit St., Dayton. Burial was made in David Cemetery, Dayton.

---