

Josephine Voisard Dies In Dayton

Mrs. Josephine Voisard, 83, of Russia, widow of Henry Voisard, died at 5:35 a.m. Sunday in Good Samaritan Hospital, Dayton. She had been ill for the past two months.

Born in Shelby County May 23, 1882, she was a daughter of Ignance and Louise Didier Monnin. She had lived all her life in Shelby County and was married in May of 1902. Her husband was killed in an auto accident Aug. 3, 1962.

Mrs. Voisard was a member of St. Remy Church, the Catholic Ladies of Columbia and the St. Ann Altar Society.

Survivors are one son, Venetious of Russia, five daughters, Mrs. Clarence (Louise) Saul and Mrs. Roger (Sylvia) Grillot, both of Dayton, Mrs. Richard (Priscilla) Bauman of Rockville Center, N. Y., Mrs. Henry (Margaret) Pour of Troy and Mrs. Dale (Monetta) Glottelster of Vandalia.

There are 16 grandchildren, five great-grandchildren, three sisters, Dona Monnin and Mrs. Christine Voisard of Russia and Mrs. August (Ellen) Pour of Troy.

Six brothers, one sister and a son preceded her in death.

Rev. Joseph Wolfer recited a requiem mass at 10 a.m. Wednesday in St. Remy Church. Burial was made in the church cemetery.

The Heintz Funeral Home, Minster, had charge of the arrangements.