

Olivia Reichert

Olivia Reichert, 82, of State Route 119, Maria Stein, died at 10:30 p.m. Friday in Briarwood Manor Nursing Home, Coldwater. She had been seriously ill two days following a stroke.

Born March 25, 1900 in Maria Stein, she was the daughter of Henry and Mary (Giere) Reichert.

Survivors include two brothers, George Reichert of Celina; Alex Reichert of Maria Stein; four sisters, Sister Marie Pauline Reichert of Mount Notre Dame in Reading; Mrs. Alfred (Luetta) Will of Coldwater; Mrs. Urban (Celia) Rauh of St. Anthony; and Mrs. Aloys (Emily) Fullenkamp of Coldwater.

One brother, Robert preceded her in death.

Miss Reichert was a member of St. John Catholic Church in Maria Stein and the Ladies Rosary Altar Sodality of the parish.

She was a charter member of the Knights of St. John Auxiliary No. 228 in Maria Stein.

Miss Reichert served as sacristan at St. John Church for 45 years until her retirement.

Services were held at 10:30 a.m. Monday at the church with the Rev. John Bolan officiating. Burial followed at the church cemetery.

Hogenkamp Funeral Home, Minster, was in charge of arrangements.