Judith A. (Schwartz) Liess,

Age: 69, of Kaiser Rd., Fort Loramie, passed away of natural causes Friday afternoon, December 23, 2011, at Wilson Memorial Hospital in Sidney. For the past year, she had been valiantly fighting a battle with cancer. On December 17, 1942, at Houston, Judy was born to the late Paul "Slip" and Frances "Fritz" (Swob) Schwartz. On April 12, 1969, at Sts. Peter & Paul Church in Newport, she married Roger W. Liess who survives. Also surviving are two children, Jeffrey Liess of Anna and Kathy Lies of Fort Loramie; a grandson, Austin Liess of Anna; two brothers, Robert "Bob" & Evelyn Schwartz of Minster, and Richard "Dick" & Pat Schwartz of Fort Loramie; sisters & brothers-in-law, Pat Schwartz of Fort Loramie, Harold & Carolyn Liess of Sidney; numerous nieces, nephews, and close friends, especially, "little buddy" Linda Baker. She was preceded in death by two siblings, Frances and Dennis Schwartz. Judy was a member of Sts. Peter & Paul Catholic Church and was active in the Ladies Sodality. A 1960 graduate of Fort Loramie High School, Judy was a homemaker. She was employed part time at Wagner's IGA in Minster, and years ago, had been a day-care provider. For many years, she had also been a Cynthian Township elections precinct officer. Judy often enjoyed a game of cards with family and friends. She loved to travel, good romantic novels, and an occasional casino visit. Mass of Christian Burial will be 10:30 AM, Wednesday, December 28, 2011, at Sts. Peter & Paul Church
