

Arlings to celebrate 60th wedding anniversary

Virgil and Martha Arling will celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary on July 20 with a 10 a.m. Mass at St. Augustine Catholic Church in Minster.

Virgil Arling and the former Martha Schroeder were married on July 24, 1954, during a 9 a.m. ceremony at St. Augustine Catholic Church.

The best man was Luke Auen, friend of the groom, and the maid of honor was Marlene Hoelscher, sister of the bride. Other members of the wedding party were Carol Perise, sister of the bride, Elmer Arling, brother of the groom, the late Walter Arling, brother of the groom. The miniature bride was Virginia Schiff, cousin of the bride, and the ring bearer was Steve Arling, nephew of the groom.

The Arlings are the parents of eight children: Jerry and Barb Arling of Minster, Cindy and Terry Liette of Coldwater, Brenda and Bill McCroskey of Sidney, Linda and Brad Holdren of New Bremen, Jeff and Marna Arling of Minster, Mark and Karen Arling of Greenville, Chris and Bruce Shinabery of Minster, and Mike and Chyna Arling of New Bremen. They also have 15 grandchildren, 5 greatgrandchildren and two greatgrandchildren on the way.

They enjoy spending time with their children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, and they enjoy traveling.

There will be a reception and dinner for the family at the Minster American Legion Post #387.
