

Miss Lindemuth Marries Greenville Sept. 2

MRS. THOMAS ALBERT BAKER

Louise Ann Lindemuth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lindemuth of Aster, and Thomas Albert Baker, son of Mr. Mrs. Albert Baker of Windsor, Ontario, Canada, exchanged their vows September 2 in a 4 o'clock ceremony in the Grace Lutheran Church, Greenville, Ohio. Pastor Charles Beronius, the pastor of Grace Church, and Rev.

Walter Lindemuth, uncle of the bride, performed the ceremony.

Marilyn Lindemuth, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Mildred Lindemuth, another sister, was the bridesmaid. They wore floor length dresses of green brocade fashioned with a scoop neckline. The skirts were pale yellow and featured an empire waistline. A pannier of green brocade was attached by a bow on the back of the dress flowing to the hemline. The sleeves were elbow length. Matching brocade bows with net formed the headpiece. The attendants carried colonial bouquets of pale yellow carnations which surrounded bronze roses and olive green streamers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown which featured a scoop neckline and long tapered sleeves which came to bridal points at the hands. The skirt was A-line and empire in style. The front of the bodice was enhanced with seed pearls and a lace panel accented a graceful train. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and green fern.

Philip Ochs, cousin of the groom, was best man. Jim Baker, a brother of the groom, was groomsman and ushers were Jack Ochs, a cousin of the groom and David Baker. The men were attired in blue-black tuxedos with black satin collars. They wore carnation boutonnieres.

A reception and buffet luncheon followed in the parish hall of the church.

The new Mrs. Baker is a graduate of Minster High School and the Ft. Wayne Lutheran School of Nursing. She will be employed as a nurse in the St. Mary Hospital in St. Louis. Her husband is a graduate of Concordia Senior College in Ft. Wayne and will be attending Concordia Lutheran Seminary in St. Louis.
