

Bornhorst, Sommer to unite in marriage

Heather Ann Bornhorst and Dane Michael Sommer have announced their engagement and approaching marriage.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of David and Debra Bornhorst, of Minster. She is a 2007 graduate of Minster High School, and she graduated from Capital University in 2011 with an intervention specialist and early childhood education degree. Heather is currently employed at Southwestern City Schools in Columbus.

The prospective groom is the son of Fred and Sherry Sommer, of Minster. He is a 2005 graduate of Minster High School, and he graduated from the University of Dayton in 2010 with a degree in civil and environmental engineering. Dane is currently employed at E.P. Ferris & Associates, Inc., Civil Engineering Firm, in Columbus.

The couple will exchange vows on June 14, 2014, at St. Augustine Catholic Church in Minster.
