

Turners to celebrate 50th wedding anniversary

Frank and Bonnie Turner, of Fort Loramie, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on Aug. 10, 2014, with a Mass of thanksgiving at 11 a.m. in the St. Michael Catholic Church in Fort Loramie, and with a dinner for family and invited guests to be followed by an open house from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. in St. Michael Hall in Fort Loramie.

Frank and the former Bonnie Puthoff were married on Aug. 8, 1964, at 10 a.m. in the St. Patrick Catholic Church in St. Patrick.

The Rev. William J. Goldschmidt officiated on a warm, sunny day.

Judy (Woehrmyer) Heitkamp served as the maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Rosanne (Turner) Grunkemeyer and Teresa (Borchers) Puthoff.

Performing the duties of best man was John Turner. The groomsmen were Bob Puthoff, twin brother of the bride, and Bill Francis. Karl Hilgefort and Donald Puthoff were the ushers.

Frank and Bonnie's family include five children and their spouses: Scott and Joyce Ann Gundling, Joseph Bernard and Ann Turner, James and Karen Lynn Fortman, Nicholas John and Lynn Turner, and Bradley Andrew and Andrea Turner.

They have 13 grandchildren: Grace Gundling, Nolan Gundling, Maddison Fortman, Mack Fortman, Frank Kyle Turner, Katelyn Turner, Ellen Turner, Macy Turner, Darren Turner, Ava Turner, Aubrey Turner, Autumn Turner and Addison Turner. They have one great-grandson, Camden John Guillozet.

Bonnie is the daughter of the late Bernard Leo and Bertha E. (Menker) Puthoff. Her brothers and sisters include the late Francis and Freda Puthoff of Vandalia, Melvin and Betty Puthoff of Naples, FL, Donald and Phylis Puthoff of Fort Loramie, Bob and Teresa Puthoff of Sidney, Vera and the late Mel Woehrmyer of Minster, the late Corrine and Tom Francis of Russia, Mary and the late Alfred Holthaus, Gene and the late Marjorie Rethman of Fort Loramie, Lew and the late Barbara Thieman of Camel, IN, the late Lucy Puthoff, the late Rita Puthoff, the late Martha Puthoff, and the late Norma Jean Puthoff.

Frank is the son of the late Joseph and Rosemary (Wissman) Turner. His brothers and sisters include John and Sheila Turner, Paul and Emily Turner, Mike and Phyllis Turner, all of Fort Loramie, Rosanne and Dave Grunkemeyer of Piqua, and Susan Elaine and Andy Tillman of Marysville.

Frank and Bonnie were high school sweethearts, and both graduated from Fort Loramie High School in 1960. Frank graduated from Bowling Green State University and began his teacher career at Fort Loramie Schools in 1964. Areas of teaching included junior and high school English and instrumental, vocal and general music at various levels. Frank retired from teaching in 1994.

In 1955, he was hired as the director of religious education at St. Michael Catholic Church, has taught junior high religion classes and directs the St. Michael Church adult and funeral choirs.

Bonnie was employed by Fort Loramie Schools and retired from Wayne Trail Technologies, Inc. in 2008 after 27 years of service.

The Turners enjoy spending time with their family, friends and neighbors. Their hobbies include genealogy, photography, fishing, gardening and traveling. They also enjoy being part of church, school and community activities.
