

Frilling to celebrate 100 years

Agnes (Mertz) Frilling of Fort Loramie will celebrate her 100th birthday Saturday, Aug. 24 2013 with an open house at Earls' Island Pavilions, at Lake Loramie State Park from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

She requests no gifts as the gift of your presence is present enough.

Agnes was born on the 04 September 1913, in Fort Loramie, the daughter of the late Bernard and Mathilda (Hoelscher) Mertz.

She married Raymond Frilling on May 7, 1941.

He died on the Nov. 14, 1975.

She has two living children, Margene and Joe Opperman of Centerville, Roger and Barbara Frilling of Fort Loramie, a son-in-law, Michael and Christine Albers of Ashland.

A daughter, Eileen Albers and a son, Jerry Frilling are deceased.

Agnes has nine grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

She is a homemaker, and enjoys gardening.

She is a member of Saint Michaels' Catholic Church in Fort Loramie, a member of the Saint Annes' Ladies Sodality, and she was a promoter for the Apostleship of Prayer Society.