

100th birthday celebration planned

Robert T. Meyer, 116 N. Frankfort St. Minster, will celebrate his 100th birthday on Dec. 26, with an open house reception at the old Eagles Bar from 1 to 3 p.m.

He was born Jan. 13, 1905 to Edward and Anna Meyer. He married Rosetta Leugers in 1943. They have three children, Nancy Meyer of Minster, Sharon Pettigrew of Atlanta, GA. and Robert E. Meyer of Springfield, OH. They have seven grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Mr. Meyer worked at the Minster Machine Company from 1935 to 1967 when he retired. He said Minster Machine was a great place to work. He was president of the U.S. Steelworkers Union and is credited with bringing a pension plan to the workers at Minster Machine during his tenure as head of the union.

Mr. Meyer said he is looking forward to seeing his old friends and relatives.
