

Monnin graduates summa cum laude from Case Western Reserve

Kara Monnin, Minster, graduated summa cum laude from Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland on May 19.

She was presented awards for being the top student in the sociology and psychology majors at the university.

While at Case Western, Monnin was a 4-year letter winner in volleyball, earning All-UAA academic honors all four years, and she was captain her senior year.

She is the recipient of the Patricia R. Kilpatrick award for having the highest grade point average for a varsity athlete at the university.

She is a member of Phi Mu Sorority and served as president of the Psi Chi Psychology honorary.

Monnin has been accepted into the clinical psychology Ph.D. program at Kent State University, and she began the six-year program in August.

She is the daughter of Beth and Jeff Monnin of

Monnin

Minster, and the granddaughter of Jerry and Sue Maxson and Phil and Doris Monnin, all of New Bremen.