

Stock Yards To Open

Opening of the Kleinhenz Union Stock Yards at St. Rosa, Ohio, Saturday, October 18th, 1930. Live stock will be taken in from morning till one o'clock P. M. not later. Hogs, calves and sheep will be taken in.

Entertainment will take place from 2 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon. The Celina fifty piece high school band will furnish the music. John Coffin, probate judge of Auglaize county, will be one of the speakers. Also other amusements will take place. Come and leave your work for a few hours, it does anyone so much good to get away from home for some entertainment. We cordially invite every man, woman or child.

JOHN W. KLEINHENZ & SONS

GEORGE THIEMAN, Manager of Yards

Union City Evening Times 10-8-1930