

Former area residents joins university trustees

James C. Wehrman of Urbana, a former Fort Loramie resident, has been named a Trustee Fellow on the Urbana University Board of Trustees, Dr. Robert Head, University President, announced.

Mr. Wehrman is Vice President at Honda Engineering North America Inc. He has served as Secretary-Treasurer of the Champaign County Public Schools Foundation and is a member of the Urbana Rotary Club.

We are delighted to welcome Jim to the Board of Trustees," Dr. Head commented. "His senior-level experience with Honda will be of great value to our University. He also is very active in our community and will serve as positive role model for our students."

Mr. Wehrman, a graduate of Fort Loramie High School, completed a Bachelor of Science in Education at The Ohio State University in 1973. He is a member of St. Mary Church in Urbana.

"I've seen real revitalization of Urbana University in recent years, and I am very excited to be a part of that," Mr. Wehrman said of his decision to join the board.

As a resident of Urbana, Mr. Wehrman views Urbana University as a valuable asset to the community.

"There probably are opportunities for further growth both of the University and the community, and as a resident of Urbana and Champaign County, I was very interested in being a part of that," he said.

He and his wife Sandra are parents of three daughters, Jessica, Melissa and Tessa.

Urbana University is a private liberal arts institution located in the west central Ohio community of Urbana, the county seat of Champaign County. Founded in 1850, Urbana University emphasizes quality instruction and individual attention in a small-university setting. For more information about Urbana University, call 937-484-1356 to visit the University's website: www.urbana.edu