 Ohio, USA

Barbara, 82, Lima, died at 7:48 a.m., at St. Rita's Medical Center.

She was the daughter of Ambrose and Eleanor (Strasser) Falk. On Sep 8, 1951, she married Raymond C. Musto, who survives.

Also surviving are a son, Thomas, Toledo; four daughters: Linda (David) Berger, Lima, Debra (Donald) Diebert, Port Clinton, Sheila (Max) Kern and Lisa (Tony) Bonofiglio, both Delaware; a daughter-in-law, Lynne Musto, Powel; a brother, James (Marcia), Lima; a sister, Rosemary (David) Parent, Elida; and fourteen grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Deceased are a son, Robert; and a granddaughter, Monica Berger.

She was employed by St. Rita's Hospital School of Nursing as a housemother to student nurses. She retired after more than 20 years from her position as Office Manager at St. Charles Catholic Church in 1991. She remained an active member of St. Charles Church where she mentored the 8th grade Confirmation candidates and was a Eucharistic Minister to the infirm and homebound. Her life was rooted in her deep faith and religious beliefs. For most of her adult life she knitted and crocheted blankets for those she loved, including baby blankets and hats that she donated to the Samaritan House and St. Rita's Hospital. For more than 60 years she played bridge on a weekly basis and celebrated birthdays with her treasured lifelong friends. The focus of her life was the care and nurturing of her family to whom she was devoted. She was deeply loved by all who knew her and will be greatly missed.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be at St. Charles Catholic Church.
