Minster has a thoroughly representative furniture establishment in the ample ware rooms of Daniel Ritter, Columbia street, and which were established some nine years ago. This gentleman owns his own premises which are 24x50 ft. in dimension and literally packed with goods.

All who contemplate housekeeping will do well to make a visit to Daniel Ritter's ware rooms. You will be pleased alike with the stock and prices. Very careful attention is given to undertaking and a very large line of coffins, caskets, burial cases, shrouds, etc., are carried. This is the oldest established furniture and undertaking house in the city. Mr. Ritter receives his goods direct from leading manufacturers, is a practical cabinet maker himself and only selects well made furniture. [N.B. Sun - 4/22/1893]
