 Find A Grave Memorial# 58529671

Bernard Vanderhorst, aged 97, familiarly known as Barney, died at 10:30 a. m. Monday in the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Connaughton, 156 North Main Street, with whom he had resided for a long period. He was Minster's oldest resident.

A lifetime Minsterite, he would have observed his 98th birthday Oct. 12. He was born in 1858 and followed the trade of plasterer for many years. He had been an invalid several years as result of amputation of a leg and fading eyesight.

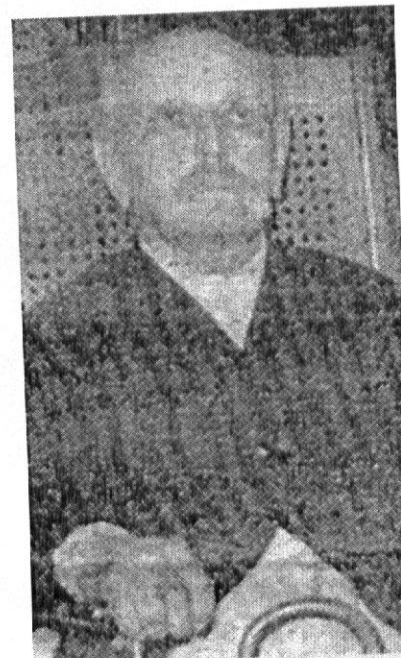

Death occurred unexpectedly as Mr. Vanderhorst sat in his wheel chair, and presumably resulted from heart failure. Mrs. Connaughton, his granddaughter, saw him slump in the chair and a physician pronounced him dead a short time later.

Mr. Vanderhorst and Anna Vallo were married Sept. 28, 1880 and she died June 23, 1948. Survivors are a daughter, Mrs. Fred Hanselman of Dayton, six grandchildren, seven great grandchildren and a great-great grandchild. He was a member of the old Cataract Fire Company.

Requiem High Mass was sung at 9 a. m. Wednesday in St. Augustine's Church by the Rev. William Meyer. Interment followed in the church burial ground. Arrangements were in charge of the Hogenkamp Funeral Home.
