

Herbert R. Bergman

Herbert R. Bergman, 85, 2051 St. Rt. 716, Maria Stein, died Wednesday, Nov. 12, 2003 in his residence.

Mr. Bergman was born Oct. 27, 1918 in Osgood, the son of the late August H. and Emma Brandewie Bergman.

He married Velma Prenger, Nov. 18, 1941 in Egypt, Ohio. She survives.

Other survivors include nine children: Joann Kunkler of Carthage, Thomas Bergman of Beaumont, Tex., Dorothy (Donald) Wilker of Dayton, Mildred (John) Heitkamp of Tipp City, Michelle (Gary) Paulus of Vandalia, Ted (Sara) Bergman of Maria Stein, Theresa Bergman of Richland, Wash., Jane (Kris) Darr of St. Marys and Jon (Julie) Bergman of Maria Stein, 44 grandchildren and 45 great-grandchildren.

A sister, Evelyn Kunkler of New Weston and a brother, Art (Ann) Bergman of Maplewood, also survive.

A daughter Jean, one sister, two brothers and three grandchildren preceded him in death.

Mr. Bergman was a member of St. John the Baptist Church, Maria Stein, and the Men's Sodality of the Church.

He belonged to the Knights of St. John, Maria Stein.

He was the owner/operator of Wayne Tool Company.

Rev. Henry Cavanaugh celebrated a Mass of Christian Burial at St. John Church. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

Hogenkamp Funeral Home, Minster handled the arrangements.

Memorial contributions may be made to Community Hospital Home Nursing Care.