

Richard Bohman

Richard Joseph Bohman, 77, 310 Bohman Dr., Osgood, died Monday, Sept. 1, 2003 in Miami Valley Hospital.

Mr. Bohman was born Nov. 19, 1925 in Osgood, the son of the late Joseph and Catherine Ernst Bohman. He married Esther Stucke, Nov. 16, 1960 at St. Nicholas Church, Osgood. She survives.

Other survivors include a son Allen (Elaine) of Osgood; daughters Deb (John Grueser) Bohman of Springfield, Ohio, Kathy (Ken) Bertke of Versailles, Nancy (Dave Moore) Bohman of Powell, Ohio and Mary Steenrod of North Canton, Ohio; and seven grandchildren.

Three sisters, Florence Raasch of Wauwatosa, Wisc., Oneda (Bill) Horstman of Botkins and Jo Ann (Ken) Lachey of St. Henry; and two brothers, Paul (Kathleen) Bohman of Minster and Ralph (Maggie) Bohman of Lancaster, Calif. also survive.

A brother preceded him in death.

Mr. Bohman was a member of St. Nicholas Church, Osgood, and the St. Nicholas Men's Society. He belonged to the Darke County Farm Bureau and he was a retired member of the Osgood Volunteer Fire Department.

He was a retired dairy farmer who specialized in growing tomatoes and green beans for the Beckman & Gast Cannery in St. Henry. He enjoyed oil painting.

Rev. David L. Zink celebrated a Mass of Christian Burial at St. Nicholas Church, Sept. 5. Burial followed in St. Martin's Cemetery.

Gehret Funeral Home, Fort Loramie, handled the arrangements.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Osgood Volunteer Fire Department or the Osgood Volunteer Rescue Squad.