

James H. Borgerding

James H. Borgerding, 63, of New Weston, died on Jan. 11, 2007 at 6 p.m. at the Versailles Health Care Center. Death was due to natural causes.

He was born on Dec. 8, 1943 in New Weston to the late Henry "Ida Gels" Borgerding.

He is survived by three brothers and spouses, Richard (Marilyn), New Weston, Harold (Jean), Fort Recovery and Mark (Marilyn), Dayton; four sisters, Norma (Jerry) Grieshop, Fort Recovery, Virginia Grimberg, Dayton, Marie (Bill) Glass, St. Henry and Patricia (Jack) Sauer, Dayton; a sister-in-law, Ramona Borgerding, Dayton; a brother-in-law, Elmer Wendel, Fort Recovery.

He was preceded in death by brothers John, Daniel, Eugene, Robert, Joseph and sisters, Henrietta Borgerding and Joan Wendel and a brother-in-law Kenneth Grimberg.

He was a member of the St. Bernard Catholic Church, Burkettsville, a Veteran of the Air Force and a graduate of Wright State University.

He was employed at NK Parts in Sidney.

The funeral was on Monday, Jan. 15, 2007 at St. Bernard Church with burial in the church cemetery with Rev. Tony Fortman officiating.

Complete Military Honors will be conducted by the St. Henry American Legion.

Hogenkamp Funeral Home in St. Henry was in charge of arrangements. Condolences on the web to www.hogenkampfh.com