

Wilma Meyer Schockman

Wilma Meyer Schockman, 92, formerly of Hanover Street, Minster, passed away at 4:25 p.m. Wednesday, March 13, 2013, at Elmwood in New Bremen, where she had been a resident for two and a half years.

She was born on March 14, 1921, in Osgood, the daughter of the late William and Eleonora (Bohman) Brandewie.

She married on May 27, 1941, to Norbert J. Meyer, and he preceded her in death on Sept. 2, 1977. She remarried Louis M. Schockman in 1989 and he preceded her in death on Oct. 1, 2001.

She is survived by one son, Thomas J. Meyer, of the Philippines; one daughter-in-law, Diane (Meyer) Winner and her husband, Earl, of Minster; nine grandchildren; 23 great-grandchildren; two brothers, Omar and Clara Brandewie of Osgood and Jack Brandewie of Montezuma; sisters-in-law, Edna Meyer Prenger, Audrey Meyer. She was preceded in death by one daughter, Bonnie and George Ruestow; one son, Kenneth; one grandchild, Kendra Ruestow Atherton; one great-grandchild; 12 in-laws.

Wilma was a member of St. Augustine Catholic Church in Minster. She was a homemaker and helped with the family farm. She enjoyed cooking, baking, cross-stitching, dancing, walking, biking, and playing cards. She will be remembered most for her strength, her smile and her precious cookies.

A Mass of Christian burial was held March 18 at St. Augustine Catholic Church, with the Rev. Rick Nieberding officiating. Burial took place at St. Joseph Cemetery in Egypt. Memorial contributions may be directed to the Minster Community Fund, or to Wilson Hospice. Condolences may be made at www.hogelandfunh.com.
