

Warren G. Brockman

Warren G. Brockman, age 86, formerly of Minster, died at Joint Township Hospital on Wednesday, June 16, 2010 after a stay at Otterbein in St. Marys.

He was born July 17, 1923 to Benjamin and Evelyn (Rump) Brockman of New Bremen. On June 26, 1950, he married Adelaide "Addy" Thieman, and she died Feb. 15, 1992. On April 15, 1994, he married Marita Bruns Elking, and she died Dec. 8, 2004.

He is survived by his children: Ann (Marvin) Selhorst of Wapakoneta, Mary (Ted) Beckman of Minster and Jane (Virgil) Bertke of St. Mary; as well as eight grandchildren and eight great grandchildren. He also leaves behind sisters, Helen Wissman of New Bremen and Vernita (Mack) Wellman of New Bremen, and a brother-in-law, Wilbur Gruebmeier of New Bremen. He is preceded in death by siblings Earl Brockman, Gladys Gruebmeier and Paul Brockman.

He was a former member of St. Augustine Church in Minster and the New Bremen American Legion, being a veteran of the U.S. Air Force. He retired as a tool and die maker at Wayne Trail, Fort Loramie.

Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated on Saturday, June 19, 2010 at St. Augustine with Rev. Rick Nieberding officiating and Rev. Don Theiman as a co-celebrant. Burial followed at St. Augustine Cemetery with full military honors at the graveside performed by New Bremen American Legion. Hogenkamp Funeral Home in Minster handled the arrangements.