

Mildred B. Fischer

Mildred B. Fischer, 101, formerly of East Fourth Street, Minster, died at 9:45 p.m. Wednesday, April 24, 2002 in Dorothy Love Retirement Community, Sidney, where she had been a resident for six years.

Mrs. Fischer was born March 1, 1901 in Chickasaw, the daughter of the late George and Mathilda Gerwels Clune.

She married Alfred B. Fischer, Oct. 14, 1925. He died Jan. 29, 1996.

A sister also preceded her in death.

Mrs. Fischer was a member of St. Augustine Church, Minster, and she was a former member of the St. Monica Ladies Sodality.

She was retired as a clerk at Boeckers Store, a waitress at the Wooden Shoe and a ticket taker at the Crescent Theater.

Rev. David Hoying celebrated a Mass of Christian Burial, April 27 at St. Augustine Church. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

Hogenkamp Funeral Home, Minster, handled the arrangements.
