

Jeanne C. Jones

Jeanne C. Jones, 89, passed away unexpectedly on Monday, June 3, 2013, at Stoney River Assisted Living in Weston, Wis.

She was born on Sept. 25, 1923, in Durand, Mich., the oldest daughter of the late Kenneth and Hazel (Wells) Crane.

When she was 9 years old, she and her family moved to Greenville, Miss., and she remained a lifelong resident.

She was married to B.C. Jones Jr. of Greenville, Miss., for 65 years, and he preceded her in death on July 8, 2008. For more than 20 of those years, she was a military wife, traveling all over the world with her husband and children.

She was a homemaker and Registered Nurse. She was a lifelong member of Second Baptist Church in Greenville, where she taught adult Sunday school for 50 years. Jeanne loved reading her Bible and had a Godly influence on her family throughout her life.

She is survived by two daughters, Sandra (Ed) Stroyny of Mosinee, Wis., Linda (Don) Kitzmiller of Minster; a son, B.C. Jones, III of Greenville; a sister, Pat Floyd of Greenville; six grandchildren, including Andrew and Paul Kitzmiller, both of Cincinnati; 13 great-grandchildren, whom she loved very much. "Grandma Jeanne" was a very special part of all of their lives throughout the years.

She was also preceded in death by her sister, Norma Crane Williams.

Prior to residing at Stoney River in Weston, Jeanne was one of the first residents to live at Elmwood Assisted Living in New Bremen. She lived there for approximately two and a half years.

Services were held June 7 at Immanuel Baptist Church, Rib Mountain, Wis., with Dr. James Engle officiating. She will be laid to rest in Greenville, Miss.

Beste Funeral Horne, Mosinee, Wis., is in charge of the arrangements.
