

Thursday, January 31, 2013

—Obituaries—

Joshua J. Eilerman

Joshua James Eilerman, 21, of Greenback Road, Fort Loramie, passed away suddenly of unknown causes Wednesday evening, Jan. 23, 2013, at the Wilson Memorial Hospital E.R. in Sidney.

He was born on Sept. 26, 1991, in St. Marys, the son of to Kevin J. and Jill A. (Clune) Eilerman, and they survive in Fort Loramie.

He is also survived by two siblings, Anthony and Kathryn Eilerman, both at home; maternal grandparents, Richard and step-grandmother, Sandra Clune of Coldwater; paternal grandparents, Thomas and Susan (Botkin) Eilerman of Fort Loramie; numerous uncles, aunts and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his maternal grandmother, Kathryn (Laux) Clune.

He attended St. Michael Catholic Church and was a 2010 graduate of Fort Loramie High School.

He had been a karate instructor for All American Youth Activities of Dayton.

He taught sessions at Sidney and Wapakoneta.

Josh was a Blackbelt in karate and also enjoyed the card game "Magic".

A Mass of Christian burial was held Jan. 28 at St. Michael Church in Fort Loramie, with the Rev. Steven Shoup officiating.

Interment followed at St. Michael's Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be directed to a charity of the donor's choice.

Condolences may be expressed at www.gehretfuneralhome.com.