

Thursday, May 1, 2003

Rose Alma Lammers

Rose Alma Lammers, 83, 243 S. Hanover St., Minster, died Tuesday, April 22, 2003, in Joint Township District Memorial Hospital, St. Marys.

Mrs. Lammers was born Nov. 22, 1919 in St. Henry, the daughter of the late John and Gertrude Streaker Fullenkamp.

She married Wilbur B. Lammers in St. Henry, Nov. 24, 1938. He died Dec. 21, 1991.

Survivors include sons, Robert (Dorothy) of Minster and John (Cynthia) of Poway, Calif.; a daughter Anne (Larry) Larger of Minster; eight grandsons and 10 great grandchildren.

A brother Louis (Zita) Fullenkamp of St. Henry and sisters, Mary (Ed) Fieley of Centerville and Mildred (Gerald) VanderHorst of St. Marys, also survive.

A sister, four brothers and a great-grandchild have preceded her in death.

Mrs. Lammers was a member of St. Augustine Church and the Mission Commission of the parish.

She belonged to the Minster and Fort Loramie historical societies.

Rev. David Hoying celebrated a Mass of Christian Burial at St. Augustine Church, April 26. Burial followed in St. Augustine Cemetery.

Hogenkamp Funeral Home, Minster, handled the arrangements.

Memorial contributions may be made to Joint Township Hospital Foundation, the St. Augustine Mission Commission or to the Center for Neurological Development.