

Lowell E. Hassan

Lowell E. Hassan, 82, of Coldwater, died at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, March 21, 2007, at Community Hospital.

He was born Nov. 10, 1924, in Macedon, a son of Donald and Nellie (Dundon) Hassan, and they preceded him in death.

His first wife, Pauline (Axe) Hassan, preceded him in death, and his wife Florence (Fifer) Hassan survives him at their residence.

He is also survived by a son, Doug Hassan of Celina; a step-son, Jeff (Margaret) Meyers of Bryant, Ind.; four daughters, Donna (Ralph) Gardner of Celina, Debra Abels of Celina, Diana (John) Ferguson of Grove City, Darcy (Tim) Homan of Mendon; a step-daughter, Jane Horine of Portland, Ind.; two sisters, Juanita (Lowell) Gagel of Celina, Jean (Bob) Schritz of Celina; a brother-in-law, Fred Stuehr of Celina; 11 grandchildren; seven step-grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

In addition to his parents and first wife, three sisters and two brothers-in-law, Wanda (Howard) Axe, Marcella (Fred) Dock and Thelma Stuehr preceded him in death.

He was a member of Coldwater United Methodist Church, a veteran of the U.S. Navy during World War II, a member of Coldwater American Legion Post 470, Coldwater V.F.W. Post 5135, and the Fraternal Order of Eagles #3025 of Coldwater.

He was a postal carrier in Coldwater for 25 years before retiring in 1986. He was also a farmer.

Funeral services were celebrated Saturday, March 24, 2007, at Hogenkamp Funeral Home in Coldwater with the Rev. Allan Brown officiating. Burial followed at Swamp College Cemetery in Celina. Military services were held at the cemetery.

Hogenkamp Funeral Home in Coldwater was in charge of arrangements.

Memorial donations may be directed to the American Lung Association or Coldwater United Methodist Church.

Condolences may be expressed online at www.hogenkampfh.com.