Cyril L. Hausfeld

Cyril L. Hausfeld, 82, of Maria Stein, passed away on Sunday, Sept. 14, at 8:22 a.m. at Mercer Health Community Hospital. He was born on Feb. 12, 1926, the son of Bernardina (Wendeln) and Albert Hausfeld. He was the second oldest in a family of seven children.

Two siblings, Rose and Mary Ann (Depweg), have preceded him in death. He is survived by siblings: Walter of Celina, Alfreda (Albers) of Maria Stein, Anthony of Ft. Wayne and Gerald of Piqua.

He graduated from Maria Stein St. Johns' High School in 1944. His entire career, 45 plus years, was spent working at the New Idea company primarily as a tool maker. He was a Navy veteran and spent two years in the service during World War II. With the exception of his last couple years at Celina Manor, he spent his entire life residing in Maria Stein.

He was a long-time member of St. John's Catholic Church and American Legion Post #571. In his early years, he was a skilled baseball player and enjoyed playing both high school and amateur ball with Maria Stein and Cassella teams. He coached and helped promote American Legion baseball throughout the local area. In addition, he was an avid photographer and enjoyed his annual vacation travels throughout the U.S.

Mass of Christian Burial was held on Wednesday, Sept. 17 at St. John's Catholic Church in Maria Stein, with Rev. Gene Schnipke Celebrant. Burial was in St. John Cemetery. Memorials may be made to the National Parkinson Foundation Inc. An obituary can be viewed online at hogenkampfh.com. Full military services were held at the graveside.
