

Donald G. Hengstler

Donald G. Hengstler, 67, of Heritage Manor, Minster, formerly of Wapakoneta, died at 9 p.m. Sunday, February 27, 2005 at Wilson Memorial Hospital, Sidney. He was born October 23, 1937 in Wapakoneta to Carl and Edna (Nelson) Hengstler.

He is survived by one brother, Ernest (Marilyn) Hengstler, Wapakoneta; two sisters, Dawn M. (Bill) Hosman, Napoleon, Oh. and Helen M. Bryer, Houston, Texas; 10 nieces and nephews, Greg, Cary, Scott, Rod & Troy Hengstler, Julie (Hengstler) Hoelscher, Keith Hosman, Buddy J. Bryer III, Lela Keller and Clint Bryer; 26 nieces and nephews and three great great nieces and nephews.

Mr. Hengstler worked with Superior Tube Company, Wapakoneta. His interests included traveling, riding bicycles and reading. He enjoyed studying the Bible and different religions. He was a graduate of Blume High School.

Funeral services were held at 1 p.m. Saturday, March 5, 2005 at Bayliff & Eley Funeral Home, Wapakoneta with Dr. Alex Gondola officiating.

He was laid to rest in Resthaven Memory Gardens, near Moulton.