Bertha Marlene Hoehne

Bertha Marlene Hoehne of Fort Loramie died on Monday, Aug. 4, 2008, at Wilson Memorial Hospital in Sidney. She was 70 years old.

She was born on Jan. 4, 1938, to Louis and Henrietta Hoelscher of Sidney. On April 19, 1958, she married Francis L. Hoehne, who survives in Fort Loramie.

She is also survived by her three sons: Randy (Sandy) Hoehne of Fort Loramie, Charles (Carol) Hoehne of Fort Loramie and Steven (Laura) Hoehne of Findlay; as well as six grandchildren. She also leaves behind eight siblings: Albert (Lucille) Hoelscher of Fort Loramie, Juliana (Harold) Phlipot of Versailles, Armella Albers of McCartyville, Nicholas (Marlene) Hoelscher of Fort Loramie, Doris Hoehne of Fort Loramie, James (Judy) Hoelscher of Fort Loramie and Nelson Hoelscher of Newport; and two sisters-in-law, Patricia Hoelscher of Minster and Mary Hoelscher of Lima. She was preceded in death by three brothers: Jerome, Arnold and Paul Hoelscher; two brothers-in-law, Raymond Albers and Urban Hoehne, and one sister-in-law, Lucy Hoelscher.

She was a member of St. Michael Catholic Church, where she had been a Mass Greeter and a CCD Volunteer Escort and was active in St. Ann's Ladies Sodality. She was also a member of Shelby County Right to Life, the Fort Loramie Athletic Booster Club and a volunteer for the former Fort Loramie Garden Club. She was a homemaker. She had also been a volunteer for the Heritage Manor Nursing Center and a substitute in the Fort Loramie School cafeteria.

Mass of Christian Burial took place on Friday, Aug. 8, 2008, at St. Michael Church, with Rev. Steven Shoup officiating. Memorials may be donated to Fort Loramie Rescue Squad or the St. Michael Church Legacy Fund. Gehret Funeral Home handled the arrangements.
