

Leonard C. Homan

Leonard C. Homan, 72, formerly of Maria Stein, died Tuesday, March 25, 2003 in Versailles Health Care Center, where he had resided for four years.

Mr. Homan was born March 30, 1930 in Maria Stein, the son of the late Lawrence and Mary Schulte Homan.

He married Alice Pleiman in Philothea, Oct. 4, 1952. She preceded him in death, March 11, 1992.

Survivors include five sons, Ronald (Joan) of Russia, Richard (Lori) of Maria Stein, Roger (Michele) of Minster, Roy (Marcia) of Bowling Green, Ky. and Robert J. (Michelle) of Maria Stein; and 12 grandchildren.

A brother, Othmar (Rita) of Maria Stein, and five sisters, Mary Ann (Maurice) Homan of Coldwater, Dolores (Maurice) Cron of Coldwater, Irene (Roger) Will of St. Sebastian, Viola (Lester) Stammen of St. Henry, and Dorothy (Daniel) Eifert of Cassella, also survive.

Mr. Homan was a member of St. John the Baptist Church, Maria Stein and the Men's Sodality of the church.

He was a past commander of the Maria Stein American Legion.

He was retired from Springcreek Corp. where he was dispatcher, and he was a veteran of the Korean War.

Rev. Kenneth Schroeder celebrated a Mass of Christian Burial, March 28 in St. John Church and burial followed in the church cemetery with full military honors by the Maria Stein American Legion.

Hogenkamp Funeral Home, Minster, handled the arrangements.

Memorial contributions may be made to St. Peter Neurological Center.