

Regina B. Aselage

Regina B. Aselage, 97, formerly of McCartyville, passed away on Thursday, July 14, 2011, at Dorothy Love Nursing Home.

She was born on May 3, 1914, in St. Patrick, the daughter of Henry and Anna (Schmitmeyer) Hoying, and they preceded her in death.

She married Clemens J. Aselage on Aug. 17, 1939, in St. Patrick, and he preceded her in death on May 22, 2001.

She is survived by her sons and daughters-in-law, William and Joan Aselage of Orange Park, Fla., Thomas and Janet Aselage of Tipp City, Jerome and Sharon Aselage of Wapakoneta, Clem Jr. and Sherry Aselage of Dayton, Dennis and Janet Aselage of Sidney, Leonard Joseph Aselage of Sidney, John and Teresa Aselage of Anna; 21 grandchildren; 35 great grandchildren; her brothers, Jerry Hoying of Greenville, Tony Hoying of Florida, Linus and Mary Hoying of Fort Loramie, Gene and Pat Hoying of Florida, Pat and Patty Hoying of Minster; her sisters-in-law, Nancy Hoying of Dayton, Liz Hoying of Chicago.

She was also preceded in death by one grandchild; her brothers and sisters, Anna Marie and Greg Eilerman, Louise and Alfred Boerger, Bernadette and Paul Gaier, Edwin and Anna Marie Hoying, Henry Hoying; her sisters-in-law, Mary (Jerry) Hoying, Mary (Tony) Hoying.

She was a member of Sacred Heart of Jesus Catholic Church in McCartyville and the Rosary Alter Sodality of the Church, Farm Bureau.

A Mass of Christian burial was held at 10 a.m. July 18 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in McCartyville, with the Rev. John Tonkin and Rev. Daniel Schmitmeyer officiating. Burial took place in Sacred Heart Cemetery in McCartyville.

Condolences may be made at www.hogenkampfh.com.