

Myron G. Huelsman

Myron G. Huelsman, 90, 152 West Columbus Street, St. Henry, Ohio died at 8 p.m. Saturday, April 16, 2005 at Mercer County Community Hospital, Coldwater, Ohio.

He was born June 19, 1914 at Cassella, Ohio to the late Louis and Anna (Schulte) Huelsman. He was married on August 3, 1940 in Montezuma, Ohio to Martha (Schwieterman) Huelsman who survives.

He is survived by five daughters, Pamela (Ronald) Eyink and Charlotte (John) Chumack, both of Dayton; Joyce (Thomas) Mosier and Brenda (Kent) Krogman both of Rockford; Mary Elizabeth (Nicholas) Moorman, Middletown; One son in law, Robert Woehrmyer; 13 grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

He is also survived by three sisters, Benita O'Meara, Dana Point, Calif.; Mary Anne (Robert Oppenheim, Dayton; Myrna (Thomas) Livingston, Union City, Ind.; three sisters in law, Mary Huelsman, Colmar, Pa.; Marilyn Huelsman and Marie Huelsman both of St. Henry.

He was preceded in death by three brothers, Arthur, Louis and Ralph Huelsman and two sisters, Irma Walkey and Rita Huelsman.

He retired from St. Henry High School in 1974 as a Math and Science teacher after 35 years in the teaching field. Prior to that he taught two years at Cranberry Elementary School.

He was a graduate of Coldwater High School and the University of Dayton. He studied at St. Joseph's College where he earned his Bachelor of Science degree. He also did graduate work at Ohio State University and Indiana University.

He was church organist and choir director for 50 years, 45 years at St. Henry Catholic Church. He served several terms on the Board of Directors of the Council on Aging, Celina, Ohio. He was a life member of the St. Henry K of C; he also served as treasurer of the Mercer County Retired Teachers Assn. for 14 years; Life member of the Mercer County Retired Teachers Assn. and the ### Ohio Retired Teachers Assn.

Services were held at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, April 20, 2005 at St. Henry Catholic Church, St. Henry, Ohio with Fr. Larry Wyen officiating. Burial followed in St. Henry Cemetery.