

Ann Rita (Jutte) Broering

Ann Rita (Jutte) Broering entered eternal life on April 6, 2006, at the age of 87 years at Alexian Village in Milwaukee, Wis. Ann Rita was a former longtime resident of both Minster and Yorkshire.

She was born Oct. 3, 1918 in Fort Recovery to the now late Stephen and Rose (Braun) Jutte. She is survived by her sister, Agnes (Robert, deceased) Lamm of Celina and brother, Herbert (Yolanda) Jutte of California. She was preceded in death by brothers Harold, Richard, Earl (Luella) and Bernard Jutte and sisters Catherine (Lawrence) Wickleman and Erma (Roman) Broering.

She was the beloved wife for 51 years of the late Joseph F. Broering, who preceded her in death on Jan. 13, 1997. They were married on Aug. 11, 1945.

She was the loving mother of three children, Karen (Richard) Kettler of Wisconsin; William (Judy and the late Wanda) Broering of Yorkshire and the late Thomas Broering. Also, she was the proud grandmother of Steven, Daniel and Mark Kettler; Sarah, Jacob (Christy) and Bonnie Broering and step-grandmother of Scott, Eric, Beth and Carla Huelskamp.

Ann Rita was a beautician. During World War II, she supported her country by building airplane engines in Dayton. Later, she was a homemaker and assisted her husband on the farm and with bookkeeping for Patterson Township. She was a former member of St. Nicholas Catholic Church in Osgood.

A mass of Christian Burial will be at 10 a.m. on Monday, April 17, at St. Augustine Catholic Church in Minster with the Rev. Louis Schmit presiding and burial following at St. Martin Cemetery in Osgood.

Visitation will be from 2 to 5 p.m. on Saturday, April 15, at Hogenkamp Funeral Home in Minster.

Hogenkamp Funeral Home in Minster handled arrangements.
