

Mark L. Klosterman

Mark L. Klosterman, 64, of Coldwater and formerly of Chickasaw, died Thursday, Oct. 13, 2005, at his residence.

He was born Sept. 29, 1941, in Montezuma, a son of Walter and Alvina (Ranly) Klosterman. On May 12, 1962, in Coldwater, he married Margaret (Kahlig) Klosterman. Mrs. Klosterman survives in Coldwater.

He is survived by two sons, Steve (Ellen) Klosterman and Dave (Toni) Klosterman of Coldwater, and two daughters, Meredith May (Michael) Andrews of Celina and Peg (Scott) Noonan of Bradford.

Also surviving are five brothers, Earl (Eileen) Klosterman of Port Clinton, Vic (Pat) Klosterman of Chickasaw, and Tom (Barb) Klosterman, Luke (Rene) Klosterman and Gary (Betty) Klosterman, all of Coldwater; three sisters, Sister Maria Klosterman of New York, Judy (Jim) Rentz of Coldwater and Connie (Jim) Vail of Centerville; a sister-in-law, Connie Klosterman of North Star; and 10 grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by a brother, Robert Klosterman.

Mr. Klosterman was retired from Minster Machine. He was a member of the Precious Blood Church in Chickasaw and the Knights of Columbus 1991 in Coldwater. A former Chickasaw councilman, he was also a member of the United Steelworkers Union 3210.

Funeral services were held Monday, Oct. 17, at Holy Trinity Catholic Church with the Rev. Thomas Dorn officiating. Burial was in St. Elizabeth Cemetery, Coldwater.

Hogenkamp Funeral Home of Coldwater handled arrangements.

Memorial contributions may be made to the State of the Heart Hospice and Home Health.