

Theodore W. Kunkler

Theodore W. "Ted" Kunkler, 83, 2787 Coldwater Creek Road, St. Henry, died at 10:41 a.m. Tuesday, April 26, 2005 at Mercer County Community Hospital, Coldwater.

He was born January 10, 1922 at Carthagen, to the late Henry and Theresa (Homan) Kunkler. He was married October 21, 1950 at Fort Recovery, Ohio to Martha Ann (Frantz) Kunkler and she survives.

He is also survived by four daughters,

Linda Mackey, Celina; Sharon (Fred) Ranly, St. Henry; Michelle (Andrew) Cordonnier, Mason; Sandra (Fred) Schmitmeyer, St. Henry; two sons, Terry (Sue) Kunkler, Fort Recovery; Dr. Patrick (Julie) Kunkler, Crescent Springs, Ky; 21 grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

He is also survived by three sisters, Dorothy Schott, Fort Wayne, Ind.; Stella (Herb) Siefiring, Coldwater; Virginia (Florin) Heitkamp, Celina; two brothers Ralph Kunkler, St. Henry; Henry Jr. (Ruth) Kunkler, Burkettsville; two sisters in law, Evelyn Kunkler, New Weston, and Jo Ann Kunkler, St. Henry.

He was preceded in death by two brothers, Frederick and Donald; and one sister, Rosemary Olson.

He was a member of St. Aloysius Catholic Church, Carthagen, and the Men's Society of the parish.

He was a dairy and grain farmer, DeKalb Seed Corn Dealer and orchard and produce sales.

Services were held at 10:30 a.m. Friday, April 29, 2005 at St. Aloysius Catholic Church, Carthagen, Ohio with Fr. Larry Wyen officiating. Burial followed in the church cemetery.