

Donald J. Link

Donald J. Link, age 75, of Carthagen, died Thursday, March 12, 2009 in his residence.

He was born Jan. 9, 1934, in Carthagen to the late Joseph and Julitta (Fleck) Link. On Jan. 12, 1952 he married Charlotte (Wenning) Link in Coldwater.

He is survived by three daughters: Karen Ann Link of Sarasota, Fla., Linda Kay (Nathan) Wenning of Celina and Mary (Mike) Profit of Franklin; as well as three step-grandchildren and one step-great granddaughter. He also leaves behind a brother Robert (Lucy) Link of Celina, a sister Florence Helpling of Englewood and a sister-in-law Eulalia Link of Coldwater. He is preceded in death by a brother Louis and sisters, Marjorie Beach and Mary Huelsman.

He was a member of St. Aloysius Catholic Church, the St. Lawrence Men's Society and the Fraternal Order of Eagles #3025 in Coldwater. He retired from Huffy in Celina after 40 years and currently worked at St. Charles Center in Carthagen.

Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at St. Aloysius Catholic Church on Monday, March 16, 2009. Hogenkamp Funeral Home in Coldwater handled the arrangements.