

Harold George Livingston

Harold George Livingston, 63, 207 N. Seventh St., Coldwater, died Tuesday, June 24, 2003 in his home.

Mr. Livingston was born Jan. 10, 1940 in Celina, the son of the late Sylvester and Fanny Bailey Livingston.

He married Doris Livingston May 25, 1963 in Coldwater. She survives.

Other survivors include sons: Ken (Sharon) of Greenville and Rick (Amy) of Celina; daughters: Theresa (Rashad) Najmi of Lorain, Ohio and Pam (Bob) Wilder of Coldwater; and nine grandchildren.

Brothers Tom (Myrna) of Union City, Ind., Jim (Shirley) of Coldwater and Don

(Joyce) of Tucson, Ariz. also survive.

A grandchild and a sister preceded him in death.

Mr. Livingston was a member of Holy Trinity Church, Coldwater. He was a past officer of the Coldwater Eagles No. 3025 and a former member of the Coldwater Emergency Squad.

He formerly worked for New Idea, Coldwater.

Fr. Ronald Wilker celebrated a Mass of Christian Burial at Holy Trinity Church, June 27. Burial followed in St. Elizabeth Cemetery, Coldwater.

Hogenkamp Funeral Home, Coldwater, handled the arrangements.