

724

The Community Post

Obituaries

Shirley Ann Fleck

Shirley Ann Fleck, Harrison Road, Chickasaw, died Thursday, January 20, 2005, at the Midwest Regional Cancer Treatment Center in Zion, IL. A cancer survivor for more than 10 years, Mrs. Fleck was 52 when she passed away.

She was born March 19, 1952, in Greenville, the daughter of Ralph E. and Velma P. (Schlarman) Magoteaux. Her mother survives in Osgood.

She married on July 15, 1972, to Paul Fleck, in St. Nicholas Church, Osgood. He survives in Chickasaw; she is also survived by her children: sons, Matt (Jodi) Fleck of Dayton, and Ryan and Bradley Fleck of Chickasaw; daughters, Jill (Mark) Burd of Anna, Jodi (Jason) Knouff of Montezuma and Jenny (Chad) Brunswick of Chickasaw; nine grandchildren; and four sisters, Marcia (Dave) Muhlenkamp of Coldwater, Janice (Jim) Browning of Troy, Mary (Mike) Hall of Columbus and Karen (Ed) Bishop of North Carolina.

Mrs. Fleck was a homemaker.

Funeral services were held Sunday, January 23, 2005, at Grace Missionary Church with John Reed officiating. Burial followed in St. Sebastian Cemetery in Celina.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Cancer Association of Mercer County.

Hogenkamp Funeral Home in Coldwater handled the arrangements.