

Agnes H. Clune

Agnes H. Clune, 89, of Chickasaw, died Saturday, Nov. 26, 2005, at Briarwood Manor in Coldwater where she had been a resident for five months.

She was born Sept. 11, 1916, in Minster, the daughter of Bernard and Mary Berning

Prenger; both parents are deceased. On Nov. 10, 1936, she married Alphonse Clune in Minster; he passed away on Nov. 22, 1978.

Mrs. Clune is survived by 10 children: Julianna and Charles Pax of Maryland, Janice and Leroy Piekenbrock of Maria Stein, Dr. Lavern and Jane Clune of Alabama, Arnold and Patricia Clune of Minster, John and Marilyn Clune of New Bremen, Richard and Sandra Clune of Carthage, Kay and Roger Hoying of Egypt, Edgar Clune of Chickasaw, Randy Clune, also of Chickasaw, and Deborah and Charles Riethman of Maria Stein; 44 grandchildren; 61 great-grandchildren; and a sister Rosie Ernst Heitkamp of Coldwater.

She was preceded in death by a daughter, Mary Ann; a daughter-in-law, Kathryn Clune; four grandchildren; and a brother, Herman Prenger.

A homemaker, Mrs. Clune was a member of Precious Blood Catholic Church of Chickasaw and the Ladies Sodality of the Church. She was also a member of the Knights of St. John Auxiliary in Maria Stein.

Funeral services were held at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, Nov. 30, 2005, at Precious Blood Catholic Church with the Rev. Harry Cavanaugh officiating. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

Hogenkamp Funeral Home in Minster handled the arrangements.

