

James Carl Prueter

James Carl Prueter, 62, West Main Street, Fort Loramie, died Saturday, January 4, 2003, at the Ohio State University Medical Center. He had been seriously ill for three months.

He was born Sept. 26, 1940, in Sidney, the son of Virginia M. (Boerger) and Robert C. Prueter; both are deceased.

Mr. Prueter is survived by two sisters, Jeanne Prueter and Judy Prueter, both of Fort Loramie; a brother and sister-in-law, Jerry and Mary Catherine Prueter, also of Fort Loramie; and a niece and nephew, Jessica and Derrick Prueter.

In 1990, Mr. Prueter retired after 21 years with the Shelby County Highway Department. He was a member of St. Michael Catholic Church in Fort Loramie and a member of the Buckeye Farm Antiques of Wapakoneta.

In keeping with his personal wishes, Mr. Prueter was cremated prior to the funeral services, which were held the morning of Thursday, January 9, 2003, at St. Michael Church with the Rev. Steven Shoup officiating. The interment of ashes followed in the church cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be made to Fort Loramie Rescue Squad.

Gehret Funeral Home handled the arrangements.
