

Helen C. Magoto

Helen Celestine Magoto, age 76, died on Friday, Feb. 6, 2009 in Columbus. She resided in Russia.

She was born Nov. 11, 1932 to Edmund and Elizabeth (Pour) Rindler of St. Henry. On Nov. 26, 1953, she married Paul J. "Pete" Magoto, who survives her in Russia.

She is also survived by her children: Linda Magoto of Columbus, Nicholas (Jill) Magoto of Columbus, Steven (Judy) Magoto of Russia and Karen (William) Jakobi of Tustin, Ca.; as well as 10 grandchildren. She also leaves behind two brothers, Richard (Virginia) Rindler of Celina and Jerry (Pat) Rindler of New Bremen, and a sister-in-law Martha Rindler of Maria Stein. She is preceded in death by a brother, Donald Rindler, and a grandchild.

She was a member of St. Remy Church in Russia as well as the Sidney Senior Citizens. She formerly worked at Minster Machine and Clopay and was an avid card player.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday, Feb. 11, 2009 at St. Remy with Rev. Eugene Vonderhaar, Rev. James Simon and Rev. Frank Amberger officiating. Memorials may be donated to the Kyle Magoto Scholarship fund. Hogenkamp Funeral Home in Minster handled the arrangements.