

— The Community Post —

aries

Elmer B. Schulze

Elmer B. Schulze, 84, of St. Henry, died Wednesday, June 18, 2008, at Community Hospital in Coldwater.

He was born March 15, 1924, in Osgood, to the late John and Agatha (Streacker) Schulze. On April 25, 1953, he married Mary Lou Fiely in Cranberry Prairie.

He is survived by a son Nicholas (Jerolyn) Schulze of Coldwater; a daughter Martha Schulze of Troy; five brothers: Alvin Schulze of St. Marys, Linus (Bernadetta) Schulze of New Bremen, Walter (Dolores) Schulze of Osgood, Erwin (Eileen) Schulze of Cassella and Victor (Judy) Schulze of McCartyville and a sister Rita Schulze of Wapakoneta.

He is preceded in death by three brothers: Leander, Wilbert and John, a sister and brother-in-law Margaret (Albert) Dirksen and a sister-in-law Dolores Schulze.

He was a member of St. Aloysius Catholic Church in Carthagen and the St. Lawrence Men's Sodality of the church, Osgood American Legion, a veteran of the U.S. Navy serving during WWII and a survivor of the Normandy D-Day landing.

He was retired from farming and from Midmark, in Versailles, where he was a member of the 25-year club.

Mass of Christian Burial was held at St. Aloysius Catholic Church on Saturday, June 21, 2008, with the Rev. Larry Wyen officiating. Osgood American Legion conducted military rites at the cemetery.

Hogenkamp Funeral Home of Coldwater handled the arrangements.