

Veceslav SeseK

Veceslav SeseK, 98, 426 Magnolia St., Celina, died Thursday, Jan. 30, 2003 in the Gardens of Celina. He had been ill for a year.

Mr. SeseK was born Sept. 25, 1906 in Ljubljana, Austria, the son of the late John and Helena Breskvar SeseK.

He married Cecelia Ungruhn Dec. 21, 1966 in St. Rose. She survives.

One brother preceded him in death.

He was associated with St. Rose Catholic Church and Immaculate Conception Church in Celina.

Mr. SeseK immigrated to the U.S. prior to 1950. He was a retired accountant, who worked in Chicago.

Rev. John Zvijak celebrated a Mass of Christian Burial Feb. 4 at St. Rose. Burial followed in the St. Rose Cemetery.

Hogenkamp Funeral Home, Minster, handled the arrangements.