

Carl B. Stammen

Carl B. Stammen, 82, of Dull Road, St. Henry, died on Wednesday, Aug. 8, 2012, at Mercer County Community Hospital in Coldwater.

He was born on Feb. 9, 1930, in New Weston, the son of the late Joseph and Josephine (Weis) Stammen.

On Sept. 12, 1953, he married Ruth M. (Huber) in St. Louis Church, North Star, and she survives in St. Henry.

He is also survived by 11 children, Thomas and Kathleen Stammen of Burkettsville, Joan and Charles Hess of St. Henry, Deborah and Gregory Barga of North Star, Sandra and David Timmerman of Coldwater, Donald Stammen of Burkettsville, Susan and James Siegel of Fort Loramie, Mark and Angela Stammen of Burkettsville, Carol and Keith Powell of St. Henry, Nancy and Jeffrey Davis of St. Henry, Richard and Nychole Stammen of Burkettsville, Joseph and Amy Stammen of Burkettsville; 31 grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; siblings, Alfons and Lois Stammen of North Star, Dolores Groff of Dayton, Marie Langenkamp of North Star, Eulalia and Elmer Klosterman of Celina; in-laws, Tillie Stammen of St. Henry, Sally Stammen of Burkettsville, Ruth Stammen of New Weston, Rita Stammen of Fort Recovery, Mildred Siefring of Coldwater, Paul and Barb Huber of North Star, Betty and Tony Feltz of St. Henry, Frank and Diane Huber of North Star, Louis and Jane Huber of Versailles.

He was also preceded in death by a son, Kevin Stammen; a granddaughter; siblings, Edward Stammen and his wife Bernadine, Cornelius Stammen and his wife Annamae, Cyril Stammen, Virgil Stammen, Lawrence Stammen, Margaret Langenkamp and her husband Norbert, Coletta Stammen, Armella Stammen and Herman Stammen and in laws Ado Langenkamp, Esther Stammen, Joe Groff, Eleanor & Virgil Schoenlein, Melvin Stammen, Norb Huber, Dolores and Lavern Rindler, Herbert and Dorothy Huber, Dorothy and Othor Barga, Elmer Siefring.

He was a member of St. Bernard Catholic Church, the Men's Holy Name of the Church, the St. Henry Knights of Columbus and the North Star American Legion. He served in the U.S. Army. Carl was also a trustee for the Wabash Conservancy. He was a lifelong farmer.

A Mass of Christian burial was held at 10:30 a.m. Monday, Aug. 13, at St. Bernard Catholic Church, Burkettsville, with the Rev. Tom Henn officiating. Burial followed with military rites in St. Bernard Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be directed to Neurological Center for Human Development in Burkettsville.

Condolences may be left at hogenkampfh.com.