

Alice Rose Kramer

Alice Rose Kramer, 75, of Chickasaw, died Tuesday, Oct. 19, 2004 in Celina Manor Nursing Home.

Mrs. Kramer was born Dec. 15, 1929 in Dayton, the daughter of the late Isadore and Bertha Tumbusch Steinke.

She married Norbert Kramer of Chickasaw April 30, 1949 in Our Lady of Guadalupe Church, Montezuma. He survives.

Other survivors include sons: Bill Kramer of Columbus, Dave (Colleen) of Bowling Green, Ohio, Ken (Linda) of Gahanna, Ohio, and Dan (Chris) of Maria Stein; daughters: Cindy Stucke of Chickasaw, Sue (Terry) Thobe of Chickasaw and Maria

(Mike) Reithman of Maria Stein; 19 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Brothers: Charles Steinke of Fort Loramie, Jim Steinke of Dayton, Paul Steinke of Montezuma and Jesse Steinke of Coldwater, and sisters: Esther Mattingly of Dayton and Alma Clune of New Bremen, also survive.

A sister preceded her in death.

Mrs. Kramer was a member of Precious Blood Church, Chickasaw, and the Ladies Rosary Altar Sodality of the church. She was a CCD teacher for over 30 years.

Fr. Kenneth Schroeder celebrated a Mass of Christian Burial at Precious Blood Church, Oct. 22. Burial followed in Precious Blood Cemetery.

Hogenkamp Funeral Home, Coldwater, handled the arrangements.