

Virginia Elizabeth Salm

Virginia Elizabeth Salm, 90, Evansville, Indiana, formerly of Minster, died at 10:20 p.m. Thursday, July 28, 2005 at the Woodmont Health Campus, Boonville, Indiana.

She was born June 1, 1915 in Newport, Ohio to the late Dr. James N. and Agnes (Schwartz) Strosnider. She was married in 1938 to Robert Louis Salm. He preceded her in death on October 18, 1981.

She is survived by three children, James (Sue) Salm, Newburgh, Indiana; David (Carol) Salm, Minster; and Mike Salm, Beaufort, South Carolina; eight grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by three brothers, James, Norbert, Aubrey and one sister, Evelyn.

She was a former member of St. Augustine Catholic Church.

She was a graduate of Holy Angels School. She was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and the Minster Bowling League.

She had worked at Wagner Manufacturing Company.

A Mass of Christian Burial was held at 10 a.m. Tuesday, August 2, 2005 at St. Augustine Catholic Church, Minster with Rev. Louis Schmit officiating. Burial followed in Graceland Cemetery, Sidney.

Condolences may be sent to the funeral home web site: www.salm-mcgillandtangemanfh.com

Memorials may be directed to St. Augustine Catholic Church.