

Donald P. Will

Donald P. Will, 75, of Fort Wayne, Ind., died April 30, 2003 in Fort Wayne.

Mr. Will was born Jan. 26, 1928 in Carthage, Ohio.

His wife, Doris Will, survives in Fort Wayne.

Other survivors include seven sons: Darrell (Susan) of Hohgland, Ind., Dana (Karen) of Littleton, Colo., Daniel (Beth) of Monroeville, Ind., Darren, (Sherri), Dale (Susan), Dean (Christine) Douglas (Dawn), all of Fort Wayne; three daughters: Diane (Kerry) Kessens of Fort Wayne, Denise (Randy) Cooper of Ossian Ind., and Dixie (Kirt) Clark of Fort Wayne; 28 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

Brothers Elmer (Lela) of New Bremen, Ohio and Leroy (Linda) of Fort Wayne, also survive.

Two brothers, Wilbert and Louis, preceded him in death.

Mr. Will was a member of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic Church.

He was a jeweler, and the founder and owner of Will Jewelers in Fort Wayne and Dunbar Jewelers in Dunbar, Colo. since 1959.

He was a W.W. II Army veteran.

A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church, May 5. Burial followed in Covington Memorial Gardens.

Covington Memorial Funeral Home handled the arrangements.

Memorial contributions may be made to St. Joseph Heslen Castle Bldg. Fund.