

Orville Wannemacher

Orville L. Wannemacher, 77, of Anna, died Wednesday, Nov. 9, 2005 in the emergency room of Wilson Memorial Hospital following a sudden illness.

He was born May 4, 1928, to Ferd and Edna Eicholt Wannemacher; both parents are deceased.

On Aug. 27, 1949, he married Doris Stueve and she survives.

His is also survived by his children, Gerald and Sue Wannemacher of Sidney, and Marcia and Dan Worthington and Dan and Donna Wannemacher, all of Anna; 8 grandchildren; 8 great-grandchildren; and his sisters, Romaine and Gerald Hoying of Celina, and Judy Schieltz of New Concord.

A brother, Virgil, is deceased.

Retired as a self-employed contractor with Wannemacher Construction in Anna, he was a member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church in McCartyville.

Funeral services were held Monday, Nov. 14, 2005 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church with Rev. Patrick Welsh officiating. Burial followed in Pearl Cemetery in Swanders.

Memorials may be made to the church and the Anna Rescue Fund. Arrangements were handled by Hogenkamp Funeral Home in Minster.

